

PRIVACY POLICY

We take your privacy very seriously and are committed to safeguarding your personal information in full compliance with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).

COOKIES

We are not using cookies. This means we do not process data about your use of our website.

COLLECTION AND USE OF INFORMATION

We only collect and store your information when necessary. This happens when you actively provide us with your personal data via a direct message or email. Your information is used only for the purpose for which you submitted it. You can edit the data you gave us at any given time. We can also delete all information we have collected during the interactions. Please get in touch via info@all-in-awe.org for any questions or requests.

By contacting us via email you agree that your name and email address are held by us for the purpose of sending you occasional newsletters with updates on our services and projects. You may unsubscribe from this service at any point via a link in the newsletter or by contacting us on info@all-in-awe.org

HOW WE PROTECT YOUR INFORMATION

Our website contains links to other websites. This privacy policy only applies to the All in Awe website. When you visit other websites via link please refer to their own privacy policies. All reasonable efforts to safeguard your personal information will be applied. However, you should be aware that the use of the internet is not entirely secure and for this reason All in Awe CIC cannot guarantee the security or integrity of any personal information which is transferred from you or to you via the internet.

CHANGES TO THIS POLICY

We keep this policy under regular review and will post any changes on this page. This privacy policy was last updated on 21 April 2021.
